

Needy families from Isiolo County Celebrated Eid Al –Adha in style courtesy of sheep donation by Qatar Charity Organization

On August 11, 2019, residents of Isiolo County and particularly needy families including widows and orphaned children celebrated Eid Al-Adha (feast of sacrifice) with a style courtesy of the donations of 30 sheep by the Qatar Charity Organization. The sheep were donated to Fighting Against HIV/AIDs Stigma in Kenya (FAASIK), Isiolo Branch. Ms. Nooriya expressed her appreciation to the Qatar Charity as she received the donation. “On behalf of FAASIK, we remain grateful to the Qatar Charity for your generous donations, I’m so humbled by your graceful act,” she said. The sheep were slaughtered and the meat was divided among 250 neediest families including widowed women and orphaned children. Idris who led the team members in slaughtering the sheep said

“this act of donation it’s a true example of what we learn from Quran. The poor people from our community today they will eat and have plentiful.”

Numerous members from needy families echoed their word of thankful as they received the meat. “I’m so thankful for giving each of us some meat to celebrate Eid Al-Adha. May Allah bless you abundantly,” said Mohammed. “I am so happy that despite our poor condition, someone somewhere thought about us and today we can afford to eat meat as we celebrate Eid Al-Adha,” said

Fatuma.

“May Allah bless Qatar Charity and FAASIK for the good work that you do of helping the poor in our community,” said Fardhosa.

A herd of the sheep that were donated by Qatar Charity Organization

Boran Idris led the team in slaughtering the sheep

A cross section of the needy families receiving the meat

A cross section of the needy families receiving the meat

A cross section of the needy families receiving the meat

A cross section of the needy families receiving the meat